

Contents

Introduction – Ryszard Czarny (Kielce)	9
 Part I. The regional and global dimension the activity of the Nordic states
 Jerzy Jaskiernia (Kielce)
Globalism versus regionalism: initiatives of Northern Europe's countries pertaining to improvements of human rights protection submitted at the forum of the European Council	17
 Andrzej Kubka (Gdansk)
Norwegian interests on the global level	33
 Part II. The role of the Nordic states in the UE's policy
 Marian Grzybowski (Cracow)
"Northern Dimension" in policies of European Union - the significance for Finland	51
 Magdalena Tomala (Kielce)
Environment's protection of region Baltic Sea	67
 Part III. The opinion of current challenges and threats in the Arctic as axis of the High North's problems
 Violetta Gul-Rechlewicz (Kielce)
Autonomous dimension of Arctic	85
 Krzysztof Kubiak (Wroclaw)
Seafaring in the Arctic. Opportunities and risks	105
 Andrzej Makowski (Gdynia)
Arctic North-East Passage and the perspectives of its operational use in the international shipping	135
 Luc Ampleman (Montreal)
Arctic mobility versus polar transportation: how far is the Far North and for whom?	149
 Joanna Grzela (Kielce)
The role and the place of Arctic in the Polish foreign policy	181